EVENT: _____ DUI Dry Suit weekend DATES: _____ BASIC TRIP COST: _____

Trip Description: This is a wonderful opportunity to experience & dive the vast variety of DUI exposure protection equipment. You will be gaining experience with what most believe to be the best dry suits in the industry. Dry suit diving improves your dive skills and opens up opportunities to dive 12 months of the year in mostly beautiful, clear cool water. DUI is a leading dry suit manufacturer from California who will be bringing all of their dry suit line and accessories to this event for divers to try out. They are very well organized and have dry suits and accessories to fit anyone who attends. If you have never dove a dry suit, fitting, introductory instruction, and supervision will be available to help you to feel comfortable in a dry suit. These "DOG" days, as DUI calls them, are a lot of fun and you will get to meet divers from all across the US & world. Training can be preplanned in desired areas such as Advanced diving, Nitrox, and a variety of specialties during these diving trips. Or if you wish, of you can just come alone and enjoy diving the clear water of these wonderful dive locations. You will experience exciting fun filled activities with Divers Training & Supply. Lets Go DIVING !!! Non divers are always welcome to join the fun and excitement. Non diver costs reflect only their activity involvement. We will depart Charleston, WV at _____, leaving from _____. Transportation will be accomplished by car polling. We will pack tanks, weights, and related equipment to take with us. Loading equipment will take place _____. Upon arrival at our diving destination, we will check into the hotel, perhaps visit the lake, and then get something to eat. We will be up early each morning, to eat if you wish, and then to leave at _____ am for the drive to the dive location. The trip price is per person / double occupancy includes: Trip registration fees, hotel costs, entrance fees to the park, instructor and / assistant supervision costs, lunch each day, shop costs, & equipment transportation fees. Each participant is responsible for their evening meal. Diver transportation for this event is by car polling.
